Lewis Regains World's Wrestling Title $5,500 Returns $550 Yearly

Witchita, Kansas March 3—Ed merely expressing a personal opinion (Strangler) Lewis, regained his world's basyweight wrestling title here to-night, winning the second and third falls from Stanislaus Zbyszko. Lewis got the second fall in eighteen minutes, with a headlock which so dazuta with a headlock which so dazuta with a headlock which so dazuta with the way an easy vice. sot the second fall in eighteen that utes, with a headlock which so dazed Zbyszko that he was an easy victim in the third fall which came with a headlock in tifree minutes time. Ebyszko took the first fall with a body sciscors and armlock in 41 minutes 30 seconds.

Lewis victory was sudden and dramatic. After being outwrested and outgeneraled in the first fall, he came back in the next two falls and won the match and with it the championship of the grappling world with the diamond beit as the coveted trophy.

Lewis regained his title from the same wrestler who had taken it away from him almost a year before and had stained it in a match in New Tork in Fuller.

cantage of the Pole came after 17 minities of wrestling in the second fall. Thysyske had been pressing Lewis, hoping to get the hold that would give him a fall and end the match.

The Pole secured a wing tock and are hold on Lewis. Lewis twisted around and countered with a shove which sent Zbysske across the ring. The champion landed on his back and Lewis, quick as a ash, was on top of him. It applied the headlock and within a fee accords he headlock and within a fee accords he head won the second fall. After ten minutes rest the grapplers were called together for the third fall. This was brief. Lewis tried two headlocks, the second taking effect.

The falls Zbysske lost tonight were the fourth and fifth in approximately one thousand matches and marked the second time be has been defeated. Frank Gotten pinned him years ago when Zbysske new to the American game, was select in an unbreakable toe hold as he came to suratch in his match with the then world champion.
